

Chapter 4: Vocabulary Preview

- Anniversary: a celebration that happens at regular intervals to remember an important event
- Charge: to run directly at someone in order to make an attack
- Military decoration: a medal given as an award, usually pinned on a uniform, in honor of special bravery or success
- Cowshed: a shelter for cows
- Retreat: to run away
- Invasion: a surprise attack
- Exploit: an adventure or exciting story
- Rebelliousness: the attitude of wanting to make a revolution, or general disobedience
- Ambush: to run directly at someone in order to make an attack

